

BALCONY and the NYU Wagner Alumni Association Present:
How New York's Political Scandals Impact Elections

*A RETROSPECTIVE ON THE EVENTS WHICH CHANGED NYC GOVERNMENT IN THE 1980'S
FEATURING THE DOCUMENTARY "ON THE MERITS"*

Cleveland E. Beckett, Jr., Maureen McManus, and the

Directors of the Wagner Alumni Association invite you to

HOW NEW YORK'S POLITICAL SCANDALS IMPACT ELECTIONS

A RETROSPECTIVE ON THE EVENTS WHICH CHANGED NYC GOVERNMENT IN THE 1980'S

FEATURING THE DOCUMENTARY "ON THE MERITS"

Wednesday April 30th

6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

The Puck Building

295 Lafayette Street, 2nd Fl., NYC

Moderator:

Dominic Carter, Political Anchor, New York 1

Panelists:

Arthur Cheliotas, President, CWA Local 1180

Wayne Barrett, Columnist, The Village Voice

William Cunningham, former Communications Director, Mayor Mike Bloomberg

Lou Gordon, Director BALCONY

Cleveland E. Beckett, Jr., Maureen McManus, and the Directors of the Wagner Alumni Association invite you to Join the NYU Wagner Alumni Association and BALCONY, the Business and Labor Coalition of New York for the 20th anniversary forum on the changing of the guard in mayoral politics. The evening will feature wine and cheese and a screening of "On the Merits: Patronage, Politics and the Civil Service in New York," narrated by Ed Asner. The viewing of On the Merits, a 30 minute film produced by CWA Local 1180, will be followed by a retrospective discussion featuring the key players and observers in the final days of the Koch era.

TICKETS:

Regular: $40 for film/forum

Premium: $65 for film/forum and a copy of Dominic Carter's "No Mamma's Boy,"

All proceeds from the event will benefit the NYU Wagner Annual Fund.

Limited seating.

To reserve tickets online, please visit: <https://www.nyu.edu/secure/wagner/events/wineparty.php>

Presented by

NYU Wagner

Robert F. Wagner Graduate School of Public Service and

www.balconynewyork.com